“Official Rules”

(Official Short Story Challenge 2018 Rules & Participation Agreement)

This Agreement, comprised of the Official Rules of the Contest as set forth herein, is made and entered into by and between the individual registering for the Contest (hereinafter, the “Entrant”), on the one hand; and NYC Midnight Movie Making Madness, LLC (hereinafter, the “LLC”), on the other hand. By paying the entry fee and registering for the Contest, the Entrant indicates that the Entrant accepts the terms and conditions in the Official Rules as set forth herein. This Agreement and the Official Rules shall govern Entrant’s participation in “The Short Story Challenge 2018,” and the intended creation by Entrant of a short story as within-described, as part of that Competition, pursuant to the provisions set forth herein. Entrant and the LLC are hereinafter referred to as the “Parties”. The Parties hereby further agree as follows:

1. All Contestants Bound By These Rules - Entrant hereby agrees to take part in The Short Story Challenge 2018, which will be conducted by the LLC and is currently scheduled to take place between January 26, 2018 and May 12, 2018. These Official Rules (herein, “Official Rules”) apply to The Short Story Challenge 2018 and to each and every Entrant who enters the Competition.

2. Rules and Communications - Any Entrant that enters a story in this Contest or otherwise communicates with NYC Midnight Movie Making Madness, LLC (the “LLC”) regarding this Contest, shall be deemed to have carefully read, reviewed, and specifically agreed to all of the text of these Official Rules; and also to any prior, other, and further writings of text; including, without limitation, rules and postings relating to the Contest (collectively, “Communications”) which the LLC may in the past, present, or future issue, distribute, post, or otherwise make available (collectively, “Communicate”) to prospective Contest entrants by e-mail, by mail, by fax, by hand, via Internet posting, and/or otherwise in any other manner. E-mail alone shall suffice to constitute notice to any Entrant, if and in the event that such method is elected for notice purposes by the LLC for any specific Communication. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the LLC does not and shall not solicit any entered stories (hereinafter, “Entries” or “Entered Stories”) by the mail or by other electronic means; and rather, relies upon word-of-mouth within the creative writing, screenwriting and film communities to foster further recognition of the Contest and a resulting adequacy of the number of quality Entries.

3. Entry Fee & Entry Deadline (Individual) - The Entry Fee is US$45 on or before Thursday, December 14, 2017 (“Early Entry Deadline”) and US$55 after December 14, 2017 until the Final Entry Deadline of Thursday, January 25, 2018 (“Final Entry Deadline”). The entry fee must be received in full by the LLC on or before the Final Entry Deadline of Thursday, January 25, 2018 to participate in the Short Story Challenge 2018. Once the registration is completed online and Entry Fee are received in full and in proper order by the LLC, a confirmation e-mail will be sent to the Entrant as identified in The Short Story Challenge 2018 online registration form, to the e-mail address identified in online registration form, confirming the corresponding Entrant’s registration in the Competition.

4. Exercise of Skill - This Contest requires an exercise of skill, only, and is NOT a game of chance in any respect whatsoever.

5. Competition Schedule – The Contest has 3 rounds of competition. Every registered writer is guaranteed to compete in 1 round of competition and as many as 3 rounds based on their placement in each round. The schedule of the rounds is below:

1st Round: 11:59PM EST on January 26, 2018 until 11:59PM EST on February 3, 2018.

2nd Round: 11:59PM EDT on March 29, 2018 until 11:59PM EDT on April 1, 2018.

3rd Round: 11:59PM EDT on May 11, 2018 until 11:59PM EDT on May 12, 2018.

6. 1st Round (January 26, 2018 thru February 3, 2018) : Each properly-registered Entrant will be placed into a "Heat" in the 1st Round which will include a number of other Entrants against whom the so-placed Entrant will initially compete. There will be a maximum of 125 Heats. Each heat is assigned a genre, a Subject and a character ("Genre, Subject and Character Assignment") that must be included in the story. The top 5 writers from each Heat in the 1st Round will advance to the 2nd Round.

7. 2nd Round (March 29, 2018 thru April 1, 2018) : Writers are again placed randomly in Heats. There are a maximum of 25 heats in the 2nd round distributed evenly with the writers advancing out of the 1st Round. Each heat receives a new Genre, Subject and Character assignment that must be included in the story. The top 3 writers in each heat in the 2nd Round will advance to the 3rd round of the competition.

8. 3rd Round (May 11, 2018 thru May 12, 2018) : The top 3 writers from each Heat in the 2nd round are placed in the final heat, with a maximum total of 75 writers. The Heat receives a new Genre, Subject and Character assignment that must be included in the story. The results of the previous rounds have no effect on the judging in the 3rd Round, and the writers that are chosen as 1st Place, 2nd Place, 3rd Place, etc... in the 3rd Round will be the overall winners of the Short Story Challenge 2018.

9. Heats - No Entrant shall gain any advantage based upon the story Genre, Subject and Character to which they are assigned. Each of the Entrants has, at the outset, an equal chance of winning their Heat, subject to the requisite exercise of skill cited hereinabove. All other individuals who have entered the Short Story Challenge 2018, and who are not selected as "Round Finalists" at the end of the each Round, shall be considered to have lost the Short Story Challenge 2018, and shall have no right to seek to recover any Entry Fee or other consideration they may have already paid or otherwise incurred. The maximum cost to each Contest participant ("Participant") shall be the Entry Fee paid by the Participant (not including any costs of production of any Story which such participant may bear), minus the Participant's prizes and/or Subsidy as may be applicable. By virtue of the foregoing, each Entrant is therefore in full control of whether or not he/she wins the Prizes.

9a. Adding Additional Writers to Heats – If it is determined that any error(s) may have occurred in the judging process through the feedback and/or scoring which would change the list of advancing writers and our judges were not able to confirm in time for the next round to begin, all writers in question would advance to the next round. Any final determination of judging errors, additional advancing writers, and number of participants in each heat is in the sole discretion of the LLC and any such decisions by the LLC are final, conclusive, and binding upon all Entrants.

10. Genre, Subject, & Character Assignment – In each Round, writers are assigned a Genre, Subject and Character assignment for their stories. All stories must be created within the competition periods (listed below in paragraph #16) and must include the Genre, Subject and Character assignment. The story must be written in the assigned genre. The list of potential genres is Action/Adventure, Comedy, Crime Caper, Drama, Fairy Tale, Fantasy, Ghost Story, Historical Fiction, Horror, Mystery, Political Satire, Romance, Romantic Comedy, Sci-Fi, Spy, Suspense, Thriller, and Open Genre. The assigned subject must be integral to the plot of the story. The assigned character must be a relevant character used in the story. The Genre, Subject and Character assignments will be different for each Heat in each Round of competition. All assignments will be e-mailed to the participating writers and posted on www.nycmidnight.com at the beginning of the rounds listed above in paragraph #5.

11. Genre, Subject & Character Compliance - In order for an Entrant's story to qualify for the Short Story Challenge 2018, each Entrant's story must be within the assigned Genre, the Subject must be integral to the plot of the story, and the Character must be a relevant character used in the story. All decisions as to compliance with the story Genre, Subject and Character assignment are within the sole discretion of the LLC; and any such decisions by the LLC are final, conclusive, and binding upon all Entrants.

12. Story Submission Format & Deadline – All stories must be uploaded on nycmidnight.com and each entrant has the option of also submitting electronically via e-mail. The submission details, including the link to the file upload form and e-mail address to send the stories will be announced on www.nycmidnight.com and e-mailed to every Entrant at the start of the rounds listed above in paragraph #5. The completed stories must be received by 11:59PM Eastern Time Zone at the end of the competition periods listed above in paragraph #5. All Entries that are not received by the LLC by the end of the competition periods will not be reviewed and will be ineligible for the Short Story Challenge 2018.

14. Story Format Requirement – For each challenge, the LLC must receive one (1) copy of the completed story as a .doc (Word document), .txt (Text file), or .rtf (Rich Text Format) adhering to the following format requirements. ANONYMITY - The author’s name must NOT appear anywhere in the Short Story, including the title page.

LENGTH - The maximum length for each individual Short Story is outlined above in paragraph 13, not including the title page. The penalties for exceeding the maximum word limits are as follows:

15. Story Copyright / Registration - Although it is not necessary for the Competition, all Entrants may want to register their stories and/or other materials with the U.S. Copyright Office (www.copyright.gov). The LLC may receive many stories adopting similar perspectives on the same genre, Subject and Character assignments, and therefore the LLC accepts absolutely no responsibility with respect to any copyright disputes or claimed rights conflicts which may occur or be perceived to occur. NYC Midnight Movie Making Madness, LLC, reserves the right to require each Entrant and any third-party to sign, properly execute, and deliver to the LLC such additional and further documentation as the LLC may deem appropriate with respect to any rights or issues, or any other matter relating to the Competition

16. Creative Development - All “Creative Development” for the stories created must take place within the window of time between: (A) the date and time of start of each Round (“Genre, Subject & Character Announcement”); and (B) the date and time of the end of each challenge (“Story Submission Deadline”) (hereafter, the “Story Window”). The Story Window for each challenge is listed below:

Round	Genre, Subject & Character Announcement	Story Submission Deadline
1 st Round:	11:59PM EST on January 26, 2018	11:59PM EST on February 3, 2018.

No revisions or missing pages will be accepted once the first attempt at an entry has been received by the LLC. Do NOT supplement your entry with any subsequent mailings or forwarding of documents, as such will be grounds for disqualification and forfeiture of any Entry Fee. All decisions as to compliance with the Challenge Story Windows are within the sole discretion of the LLC; and any such decisions by the LLC are final, conclusive, and binding upon all Entrants. The LLC naturally reserves the right to disqualify any Entries which are plagiaristic or otherwise unoriginal to the corresponding Entrant.

17. Preparations - The ONLY work that may take place in connection with the Contest prior to the date and time of the genre, Subject and Character announcements in each challenge, is the preparation, execution, and submission of required documents to NYC Midnight Movie Making Madness, LLC.

18. Disqualifications - The LLC reserves the right to disqualify any Entrant or Entered Story that does not comply with these Official Rules and other Contest requirements from time to time communicated by the LLC.

19. Judges - The judges for the Competition shall be individuals with experience in the writing and/or publishing industry, such that they are qualified to select winning Stories, as determined by NYC Midnight Movie Making Madness, LLC, in its sole discretion. No one will be allowed to be a Judge if he/she has any demonstrable bias or conflict of interest with respect to any of the Contest Entrants, as determined by the LLC in its sole discretion. Entrants shall disclose in writing to the LLC any such bias or conflict of interest of which they are or become aware and which they believe may have a direct or indirect effect on Contest results, and any Entrant failure to do so may result in disqualification of the Entrant and/or the corresponding Entry. An updated list of judges will be posted on www.nycmidnight.com, which all Entrants are urged to regularly check.

20. Judging Criteria & Decision of the Judges - The fixed standard and criteria used by each of the Judges shall be instructed by the LLC to the Judges, and shall be as follows:

15%	Format (Adherence to paragraph #14, but not including Length)
15%	Spelling and Grammar
70%	Story (Writing, Originality, Character Development, and Plot Development)

The same Judges may be used for several Story Groups, but not for each and every Group. The LLC reserves the right to vary the Judges on a Group by Group basis. Each Judge shall total all scores for each Short Story and then share his/her rulings with the LLC. The highest average score among Judges will be considered the 1st place story in the heat, the next highest average score will be considered the 2nd place story, and so on. If there is a tie among the average scores, the story with the least penalties in overall Length and Format will advance. If the Length and Format is the same, the story with the least penalties in Spelling and Grammar will advance. Finally, if the stories are still tied after comparing the Spelling and Grammar, the stories will be distributed to a new judge to determine a winner amongst the stories. All Entrants are prohibited from contacting any of the Judges regarding their submissions or the Competition generally. Any such contact will be grounds for automatic disqualification and forfeiture of Entry Fees and any other monies or consideration expended.

27. Contest Changes, If Any, and Additional Documents - In the event that, in the LLC's discretion, circumstances so warrant, the LLC may change the Official Rules of this Contest to foster the interests of preserving as level a playing-field as possible for all Entrants and Entries. It is accordingly the sole responsibility of each Entrant to, throughout the full duration of the Contest, frequently check the Contest Website and the Entrant's incoming e-mail, regular mail, and faxes, to ensure that any and all Communications from the LLC are received. The laws, regulations, requirements, and rules of any state or other jurisdiction may be subject to change at any time, including without limitation such time as the activities relating to this Contest may occur. By entering this Contest, each Entrant warrants and represents to the LLC that he/she is under no legal or other impediment which would prevent or restrict his/her ability to enter and engage in activities relating to this Contest. Accordingly, it is each Entrant's responsibility to ensure that: (A) the applicable laws, regulations, requirements, and rules of his/her home state or other jurisdiction allow and permit the Entrant's entry into this Contest; and (B) there is no contractual or other legal

31. Warning - Any attempt or action taken by any Entrant or other person or entity to damage any website, disrupt the process or progress of any e-mail, or otherwise undermine the legitimate operation of the Contest, may be a violation of criminal and civil laws; and, should such attempt be made or activity occur, the LLC reserves the right to disqualify such persons from the Contest and further interaction with the LLC, and seek damages and other legal and equitable relief from and with respect to any such person or entity to the fullest extent that the law will allow.

Any failure of any Entrant to make himself/herself available for same, shall result in disqualification of the corresponding Entry, at the LLC’s sole election.

Any re-scheduling of the Story Competition and prizes thereafter, if any, will be at the sole discretion of the LLC. Any Entry Fees paid or payable by any Contestant are non-refundable, irrespective of contingency (including their being non-refundable to any Finalist or Winner). Unsubscribing from the Newsletter list will not prevent any future competition emails such as submissions confirmations or feedback from the judges since the Newsletter list is kept separate from any competition lists.
